

Safety and Hygiene Concept

for guided tours at Denkort Bunker Valentin (as of 07 June 2020)

Regulations on safety and hygiene:

- Guided tours only take place in the depot part of the bunker and outside area. Until further notice guided tours will not include the information centre and exhibition.
- The number of participants in a guided tour is limited to 10 persons.
- Public guided tours are offered on Fridays at 11a.m. and 1:30p.m.
- Individual guided tours can be booked by email or phone: mail@bunkervalentin.de or +49 (0)421 – 69673670.
- According to the regulation on tracing contact persons, we are obliged to collect your personal data before the start of the tour. You can send us your data during the booking process on our website. Your personal data are only collected for this purpose. They are kept for four weeks and only transferred to the health office on its request. Please meet at the information centre 15 minutes before the beginning of the guided tour.
- Please register in advance with our staff in the information centre. For public guided tours, regular prices are 7€ per person, reduced prices are 3€ per person. For individual group tours, the price is 70€ for tours in German and 80€ for tours in foreign languages. Please pay at the information desk.
- Before or after a guided tour, participants are welcome to explore the information centre and exhibition on their own. The respective safety and hygiene measures apply.
- Multimedia guides are available for rent at the information desk. Please use your own headphones or the integrated speakers of the device.
- Meeting place for guided tours is at the benches near the main entrance of the information centre.
- During the guided tour, participants and tour guide are obliged wear a mask over their mouth and nose.
- The rule of minimum distances applies during the entire guided tour. All participants are asked to keep a distance of 1.5 meters from one another other.

Further information is found in our house rules:

<https://www.denkort-bunker-valentin.de/besuch/hausordnung.html>